

DIRECT SUPPORT PROFESSIONAL- CASUAL RELIEF POSITIONS

Please note the following essential components of the role of Direct Support Professional – Casual Relief:

- Knowledge and commitment to the principles of inclusion
- Clear criminal record and vulnerable sector screen
- Valid driver's license, own reliable transportation and a willingness and commitment to transport individuals
- Current valid certificates in First Aid and CPR
- Effective oral and written communication skills
- Computer proficiency
- Free from communicable diseases
- Physical ability to support people (some with limited mobility) in all aspects of daily living including providing personal care and support in a wide range of community settings
- Ability, availability and commitment to work a variety of shifts that include days, evenings, nights and weekends

Please visit our website www.clhuntsville.ca for a full list of Core Competencies that are required.

Community Living Huntsville is an equal opportunity Employer and values and encourages diversity among staff members. If you are looking to make a difference in the lives of the people who are supported by Community Living Huntsville, and you are interested in a challenging and rewarding career, please send your resumé and covering letter to:

Human Resources
Community Living Huntsville
99 West Rd Huntsville, ON P1H1M1

Fax to: 705.789.0752 or email to: careers@clhuntsville.ca

We thank everyone for their interest in Community Living Huntsville. However, please note that only those applicants selected for an interview are contacted.